ounced that Cheng Te-chuan, Governor at Soo-Chow, and formerly Governor at Moukden, Manchuria, and the first Gov-culties before us, but we must win.

guarantee an adherence to foreign treatles,

whether they were made unfairly or fair-

Dr. Wu said he fully understood that the reform movement might lead in any direc

of China were now prepared to show the

to a fair and honest government.

"I believe that the institution of would have answered that such an outcome was impossible. Now I have been sur would be better, but the selection of a new dynastic head and a new Empero result in the shedding of much blood.

would be certain to create jealousles and

"The plans of the reformers have been considered for six years. We cannot hope to accomplish everything within a short and the people inconvenienced and frightened. If the merchants are patient and foreigners repose confidence in the sincerit of our dezire to avoid bloodshed rowdyism

can be put down, and we guarantee a vas increase in foreign trade and improved forcign relations. We are determined to es

Supplementing his formal statement later, will be a republic or a constitutional mon of the United States Constitution with the ow, China will be opened to foreign trade and the government and people alike will do their utmost to stimulate business with the outside world and develop the natural

Both Dr. Wu Ting-fang and Wen Tsung-vao stated, however, that there would be no reason for foreign interference, the suggestion of which they deprecated as dangerous and unpalatable to the people. They said that the reformers wished recognition as belligerents wherever a responsible lo-

In conclusion these men, notable in affairs of state, who have cast their lot with the revolutionists, declared that the trend

NAMES SUCCESSOR TO BUNN.

vesterday the

President Connolly of Queens Borough

of the world was toward a republican form

Shanghai, Wu-Sung and elsewhere.

only anticipating the inevitable acts of the German federation.

on a republic. He added:

Trade will be temporarily damaged

ly. We will pay our obligations to foreign eigners. Ninety-nine

- EMPEROR TO BE TAKEN SECRETLY FROM PEKING

Court Meditates Flight-Tunnel To Be Dynamited After Imperial Train Passes.

END OF DYNASTY IMMINENT

Vicerov of Nanking Commits Suicide, Having Failed to Obtain Obedience to His Orders-Gen. Wu Killed.

IRy Cable to The Tribune.1 Peking, Nov. 8 .- A strong possibility has suddenly arisen of general warfare being declared against the Manchus. That Chinese soldiers are leading the ment of grave import.

Signs are apparent that the court is preparing for secret flight. The assas sination of General Wu Lu-cheng has brought matters to a crisis.

The Chinese troops within two or three days' march of Peking are so numerous so well organized and so well equipped could easily triumph over any resistance likely to be offered by Peking

The city is terrorized, but foreigners had ordered him not to resist the revolutionists by force, but to surrender peace-The Tartar general commanding the Manchu troops refused to obey these

A condition of panic prevails.

Peking, Nov. 7 .- The legations conpasty is imminent. There seems no hope of saving even a nominal throne. The provinces north of the Yang-Tse are ow declaring for a republic to-night that the capital will be surbefore many days by Chinese

Where the court will take refuse is a question. There are evidences that the court contemplates proceeding to Chang Kla-kau (Kalgan). Troops guarding the route to that town, which lies in the province of Chi-Li, 125 miles northwest the tunnel after the passage of the train bearing the Emperor and his household.

Privy Council, has taken rooms for his orders. family in a hotel in the legation quarter. Ching's palace seems to be de-quarter or seek other places of safety. A concerted attack upon the for-conciliate the people, has declined the ened. sent to Feng-Tai, near Peking. A train-

BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF CHINA FROM PEKING TO SHANGHAI AND HANKOW, COM- ENVER BEY, TURKISH HERO CANADA TO ACT ALONE PRESIDENT VOTES EARLY

YUAN SHIH-KAL

Who, despite his repeated refusals of the office, was formally appointed yesterday by the National Assembly Premier of the Chinese Empire, load of arms and ammunition from Lan- general. without a quorum, but certain Chau has already been sidetracked at arrested. members are endeavoring to maintain a that point. It is believed that the 3d Division is acting under General Chang's other officers were assassinated, and, ac-

The government proposed to-day to cut the Peking-Tien-Tsin Railway beserted. It is believed that he is in the yond Feng-Tai, to prevent additional troops from arriving. It is understood American soldiers with a supply of Britain was entitled to operate the rail- Division, which is now with Yuan Shihskyrockets were sent to each outlying way in the event of the suspension of kai. The government reports, however, mission compound to-night. The lega- service, in accordance with an old agree- that two trainloads of imperial soldiers government at Peking, which is corrupt tion has advised the Americans to come ment. Consequently the line is still open. are now on their way to Hankow, and and prone to be Rebels Seventy Miles from The Chinese report that the Kal-Gan mutiny. eigners is not feared, but there are many Railway is in the hands of the revoluwithin the city who are opposed to for- tionaries, while a rebel force is proceed-General Chang Shao-tsen, who was ap- at a point on the railway about seventy tion early in the day. It is believed pointed by imperial edict as envoy to miles from the capital. All the railway that this advance party is preparing an enormous advantage to all foreigners proceed to the Yang-Tse provinces to connections with the capital are threat- the way for the flight of the court, but as well as to China.

The officer commanding the 6th Diremain with his own roops at Lan-Chau. vision, which was a part of General Wu are constantly moving in the vicinity The 3d Chang-Chun Division, which Lu-cheng's command at Chi Kia-chuang, of Peking. The Manchu troops here

Manchu and Chinese

that the British Minister, Sir John Jor- of General Wu Lu-cheng will lead to the dan, protested, on the ground that Great revoit of the remainder of his old 6th be sufficient to prevent a

A hundred carts left Peking to-night for Je-Hol and two hundred mounted ing apparently in the direction of Peking Manchus proceeded in the same directions and open up all the ports of China was executed and the Hamidieh fort was many Manchus are fleeing and troops halted at Lan-Chau for one day, is being reports that forty Manchus stormed Wu's tent early to-day, shot and beheaded the police, 4,000, and banner police, about 5,000 The city is quiet to-night and there s no sign of any intended movement. one over to the revolutionaries. Prior o this, one of the leaders, Wang Shaonien, a distinguished educationalist, informed the consuls that everything was ready for a peaceful assumption of authority by the Chinese and that there would be no slaughter of the Manchus inless they resisted. Yuan Shih-kai Formally Appointed. The National Assembly, by virtue of the powers bestowed upon it by the recent edict, to-day formally appointed time. Yuan Shih-kai Premier. The question of his permanency in the office was disussed, but it was decided that the Assembly had no authority to guarantee this beyond the election of a parliament.

It was, however, resolved to assure Yuan of the Assembly's continued support.

Russian financiers under guise of a give China complete autonomy oan have arranged with the Viceroy of Manchuria to advance $2,500,000, acepting as security Chinese shares in Russo-Asiatic Bank at Peking. Reports from Amoy indicate that the of the city is imminent. There is no foreign warship there, but all the revolutionary movement, and the majority consuls have appealed to their governments to send vessels. The American cruiser Albany, now at Shanghai, received orders to repair there at once. Meantime the consuls at Amoy are devising plans for the defence of foreign-

There is said to be a panic among the habitants of Fu-Chow, the capital of ers if an emergency arises.

Communication with Ching-Kiang is gain interfered with.

London, Nov. 8.-The Peking correspondent of "The Daily Telegraph," cabling last night, says: "The situation here to-night is far worse than ever resources of the country. Foreign advisers The commonest prudence de- of administrative capacity will also be mands that a British regiment should needed. be brought from Tien-Tsin to Peking. Prince Tsai-Tao, ex-Minister of War and a brother of the Prince Regent, is atempting to persuade the Empress Dowager to depose the regent The Chinese Foreign Board is authority for stating that a scheme for cal government had been set up, as at the neutralization of Shanghai is under consideration, similar to that estabished at the time of the Tai-Ping resellion.

of government and that China now was A despatch to "The Daily Telegraph" from Shanghai says that the province of Yun-Nan has declared its independence and that the Viceroy has disap-

ILL AFTER APPLE BITING GAME. of Denis o'Leary to be Commissione Wallingford, Conn., Nov. 7.-The local of Public Works in place of Walter H. high school and some of the grammar Bunn. The latter's resignation was acchools here are closed because of an epi- cepted by the Borough President followdemic of diphtheria. The spread of the ing what Mr. Connolly considered an ill disease is traced to a Halloween party advised speech in support of William Wilwhere fifty of the children gathered and lett by Mr. Bunn, after he had been in tried to bite into an apple suspended by a troduced at a meeting in Flushing as repstring. Every child that succeeded in biting resentative of and speaking for the Conhe apple became ill a day or two later. nolly administration.

Follows His Arrival.

ARABIAN TOWN BOMBARDED YELLOW PRESS DENOUNCED

the Red Sea, and Sinks an Enemy Gunboat.

FORTIETH DAY OF THE WAR.

vas reported shelled by an Italian cruiser, a Turkish gunboat lying in the port being sunk

The headquarters of the Turkish army in Tripoli were located by Italian army aviators.

Constantinople, Nov. 7.-The recent news of the recapture of Derna, Tripoli, by the Turks purports to come from Enver Bey and the Sheik of the Sunussi ties as military attaché at the Turkish ceed to Tripoli via Syria and Egypt and head the resistance to the Italian in-

An Italian cruiser bombarded the town of Akabah (Arabia) on Sunday, sinking the Turkish gunboat Italidi, which was Former Chinese Minister in lying in the port. The second officer of the gunboat was killed, but the others of hilly portion of the town. The extent of the damage is not stated. Before sink-Akabah is a fortified village of Arabia, on he east side of the Gulf of Akabah, near its northern extremity. The Gulf of Akathe indication it affords that the Italians. meeting with unexpected opposition in attack the enemy's actual country from nerly imperial resident at Lhassa, who has been appointed Assistant Director of Washington, Nov. 7.-With the aid of an have located the headquarters of the Turksh army, and have ascertained that the forces are considerably diminished, according to an official dispatch received by the per close connection with the Italian Ambassador to-day The Italian Minister of War states that lines of the Italian defences of Tripoll and the Italian left wing, Although the State Department insists that the sole purpose of the Chester's visit to Tripolt was to proffer help in case the per cent of the quired precise information as to the milltary situation in Tripolt and vicinity, notwithstanding the severe censorship imposed from Malta to Tripoli by the State Deected, each city and town giving its al-Consul in Tripoli, said he stood in no include women if the House so pleased. people of China, North and South, are need of help and thus, rather than jeop inited against Manchu supremacy and the Commander Decker sailed for Marseilles will await orders there Paris, Nov. 7 .- A Tripoli dispatch from an Italian source says that the Italian advance began to-day. A turning movement to foreign trade. Thus will be guaranteed occupied.

AFFRAY IN TUNIS Italians and Arabs in Collision in tion, even to anarchy, but all the people French Protectorate.

Tunis, Nov. 7 .- Groups of Italians and Arabs came into collision to-day and a desperate affray ensued. It required public is feasible," he said. "If I had strenuous efforts on the part of the eighths of a cent a bushel. been asked this question a month ago I whole police force, reinforced by detachments of troops, to restore order, and this was only accomplished after a large number had been killed or wounded on Detectives Said To Be Close on Trail prised, but I am convinced. If the young Emperor were allowed to remain on the both sides throne a short time longer perhaps it

In addition a police sergeant was killed and several of his men badly hurt. The rioting continued for a long time i produce a reign of anarchy, which would different sections of the city. Revolvers were freely used. It is even reported that at one time a mob of Arabs, several thousand strong, threatened to overpower the troops, who fired five volleys. The number killed has not been established, but it is estimated at from twenty to fifty

PLAN WAR ON PLAGUES

International Conference to Urge Frankness in Making Facts Known. tablish a stable government, and hope to Paris, Nov. 7.-The International Sanitary Conference under the auspices of the Dr. Wu Ting-fang made it plain that he French government was opened to-day by was not definitely committed to the idea M. de Selves, the Minister of Poreign Afof a republic, though he believed that such fairs. M. Barrero, the French Ambassador a government would be feasible. Personto Italy, presided. The great object of the conference is to increase the obligation ally he favored a constitutional monarchy, but he was in sympathy with the general upon nations to make public the fact of the existence of plagues and pests in their terbehind that movement had set their hearts ritories, to improve the medicinal service upheaval, it will be to the advantage of China. If the revolutionists succeed the question of whether the future government archy will have to be decided. If it is to be the former I anticipate a combination "In any case New China will seek the friendship of foreigners, and probably a revision of her treaties will ensue. Any-

United States Is Involved.

Italian Cruiser Shells Akabah, in Foreign Secretary Warns of Danger in False News-Offensive to Other Nations

> London, Nov. 7 .- A determination to leave an entirely free hand to Canada in dealing with the United States in matters concern ing the Dominion was indicated to-day by the answer of Sir Edward Grey, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to a question in the House of Commons regarding the naval activities of the United States on Lake Michigan.

Rowland Hunt, Unionist member for nadian government, which was most di- to-morrow morning for Frankfort and rectly concerned and whose interests were Louisville, Ky. chiefly affected. He added: "I propose to leave to the Canadian government the with them."

Sir Edward took occasion to read the so called sensational press a homily on the offensive to other nations. days," he remarked, "if false news continues to be reported, public resentment The incidents which called forth Sir Edward's remarks were an alleged interview with the British Ambassador in Vienna ing, the gunboat returned the cruiser's Reginald McKenna, the Home Secretary, for a moment, and then Mr. Taft, linking both strongly criticising Germany. The one arm been guilty of the alleged indiscretions, but before this was known in Germany the incidents had been construed as a direct pubic international affront, which had given manufacturers. President Robertson inrise to great resentment and called forth troduced him with one of the shortest in-

Sir Edward pointed out that while these ncidents had not caused real difficulty between the two governments, there were the actions taken by the British and Gerthe Turkish artillery was repulsed on No- parts of the world. I trust that, with the conclusion of the negotiations, now happily reached between France and Germany, on the subject of Morocco the tension which has given rise to suspicion and distrust will disappear.'

A deputation bers of Parliament waited upon Premier Asquith this evening to memorialize him Henderson, Member of Parliament for Durpointed out that only 7,904,655 perfrage, and would introduce a bill to that ffect, but it would not include women. The bill, however, he said, would be in such a form that the House could extend it to SELLS WHEAT AT OWN PRICE Large Holder of Cash Grain Lets Millers Have 100,000 Bushels.

Chicago, Nov. 7 .- A. J. Lychtern, one of the largest holders of cash wheat in the United States, to-day sold 100,000 bushels of No. 2 red winter wheat to millers at his own terms, after having refused a remarkable offer from them for 5,000,000 bushels under the price which he had named. It was also announced that in the last week he had disposed of 4,000,000 bushels without being forced to alter his terms.

The 5,000,000-bushel bid-possibly the largest ever made for a single transaction in wheat-was refused by Lychtern because the figures did not meet his views by seven-of Forger.

PITT'S ARREST EXPECTED

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Baltimore, Nov. 7.—That Pembroke W housands of dollars by manipulating bills thousands of dollars by manipulating bills of lading, will be in the hands of the police within a few days was the information given out from a reliable source to-day. Coupled with this fact is the sudden disappearance of Detective Thomas F. Hogan, who vanished from the city about forty-eight hours ago. Hogan, it was learned, is in the South, and his destination is said to be one of the Carolinas, where Mr. and to be one of the Carolinas, where Mr. and Mrs. Pitt are believed almost surely to be. Detective Captain McGovern admitted that there was a possibility that Pitt would be found within a few days.

HORSE TO THE RESCUE

Neighs for Help When Women Are Hurt by Vehicle's Upset.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Stamford, Conn., Nov. 7.-Mrs. Lincoln Taylor, of this city, and Mrs. Lewis Raymond, of Rowayton, were seriously in-jured this afternoon, when a horse Mrs. with an outburst of fire and smoke beritories, to improve the medicinal service afforded on transatlantic and coast steamers and to oblige steamship companies to observe stricter sanitary measures on their vessels.

The American representatives are Arthur Bailly-Blanchard, the Secretary of the American Embassy in Paris, who appears as Minister Plenipotentiary; Dr. H. D. GedGings, the American public health officer stationed at Naples, and Lieutenaut-Colonel Jefferson R. Kean, of the United States Army Medical Corps.

Taylor was driving shied on a steep turn in the road at Trinity Lake. Both were thrown out and Mrs. Taylor's skull, it is feared, was fractured. The horse, long in the possession of the Taylors, did not run away. After the accident it tried to reach the women, prostrate in the road, and became entangled in the harness. It fell and neighed continually.
For half an hour the two women lay unconscious in the road. Then Mrs. Raymond recovered and hobbled half a mile to a
recovered and hobbled half a mile to a form Trinidad that a volcanic island half risen in the Gulf of Paria. Attention was at once directed to Soufriere, but the volcano continues quiet.

Recapture of Derna, in Tripoli, Britain Will Not Meddle When Afterward Makes Two Speeches in Cincinnati.

DEFENDS PEACE TREATIES

Mr. Taft Meets Old Friends, Including Governor Harmon and Ex-Senator Foraker.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7 .- President Taft's Shropshire, suggested that the making of a Judicial Settlement of International Disaval station there might be a breach of putes. To-night the President was the the Rush-Bagot treaty, and wished Am- guest and principal speaker at the dinner bassador Bryce instructed to ascertain the of the Commercial Club. At the close of facts. The Foreign Secretary refused to this speech Mr. Taft retired on board his do so without communicating with the Ca- private car, and will leave this city early

The President met scores of Ohicans to initiative and thereby show our desire to Governor Harmon, who came from Columact in harmony, sympathy and co-operation bus to vote, met the President and sat danger of spreading false news that was Ex-Senator J. B. Foraker, Mayor Louis "Some of these Schwab, four United States judges and many other well known Ohioans dropped in home or sat with him at luncheon or public Club, where the Commercial Club gave its an alleged passage in the speech of mon and Mr. Feraker. The three talked Foreign Minister explained that neither with the other thrown over the shoulder McKenna had of Mr. Foraker, entered the building. Ward 3, Precinct M, the President was in a happy vein when he spoke to the "Gentlemen, the President," said Mr. Rob rtson, and the audience applauded awyers are a necessary evil," said the have no fear of the future. I am coming back to compete for business with Governor Harmon and Senator Foraker. Arbitration Treaties Advocated,

In Music Hall Mr. Taft spoke at length behalf of the arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France. He said there was nothing inconsistent in his demands that the Panama Canal be fortified and that the Senate ratify these treaties. ought to use common sense in everything." the Pansma Canal to keep it for ourselves and to prevent it falling into the hands Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell University, also spoke on the peace of mankind.

"In time of peace prepare for war," was the opening clause of a speech by John Hays Hammond. He said in part:

In the Anglo-American American arbitration treaties a long step has been taken in the right direction. While it is true that the Senate has not ratified these treaties, the pressure of popular demand will undoubtedly induce favorable action at an early date. The peace treatles "are the crown of President Taft's achievements, and they are destined, if ratified, to become the glory of our common country," said Dr. S. C. Mitchell, president of the University of South Carolina.

At the night session addresses were made by James Brown Scott, William I. Hull, of Swarthmore College, and John H. Letane, of Washington and Lee University.

Washington, Nov. 7 .- Secretary Knox has gone to Cincinnati, where he will deliver an address to-morrow night before the American Society for the Judicial Settle-Baltimore, Nov. 7.—That Pembroke W. ment of International Disputes. He will advocate ratification of the arbitration by the grand jury on the charge of securing treaties without amendment.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 7.-Frankfort is in Capitol.

A large section of the balcony, part of which will be occupied by the President and his party, has been set aside for the use of former slaves. A score of these belonged in the old days to the family of the giver of the statue, James B. Speed, of

NEW ISLAND MAY DISAPPEAR

Fear That Formation Which Gushed Forth Near Trinidad Will Recede. Port of Spain, Trinidad, Nov. 7.-The

Taylor was driving shied on a steep turn tween the Island of Trinidad and Venes-

TO-DAY at 2:30 o'clock,-third floor, Tribune Building

The Public Service Commission will hold a public hearing to decide the all important question whether you shall henceforth be moved up or down from stations to street level QUICKLY, SAFELY, COMFORTABLY and WITH-OUT PHYSICAL EFFORT on Escalators, or Moving Stairways,-

Or whether you shall forever continue to be inconsiderately dumped far underground or up in the air, to laboriously and with great sacrifice of vitality, mental vigor, loss of time and money-drag yourselves, your heavy baggage and bundles up and down heart-straining, nerve-racking, energy-sapping stairs and inclines as now prevail.

TO-DAY is the day for you to ACT.

You know you are entitled to street level landing-your and your family's health and comfort demand that you attend this meeting and MAKE IT PLAIN that Escalators, or Moving Stairways, ARE IMPERATIVE.

Concentrated, Determined Demand TO-DAY will WIN you these Most Needed Facilities.

Ellis Parker Butler Kate Jordan Ralph Henry Barbour Jeffery Farnol Sewell Ford

A LL in one magazine. Who could ask for a better Sunday's reading than is assured by such names? Stories by all these writers, and illustrations by ARTHUR I. KELLER and other artists, will be Two Houses By Kate Jordan is this author's second entry in our Prize Story Competition. A deeply moving tale of love and jealousy and reconciliation.

Fogarty's Thirteen

By Ellis Parker Butler A highly imaginative and fantastic tale of aeroplanes and war, luck and love, by the author of "Pigs Is Pigs."

A Boost for the Benos

By Sewell Ford Torchy mixes with vaude-villains, with laughable and surprising results. One of his best exploits.

IN NEXT SUNDAY'S New-York Tribune

Love and Galoshes

By Ralph Henry Barbour This story, like those by Miss Jor-dan and Mr. Butler, is entered in our $10,000 contest. Love and pride form the theme, deftly handled.

The Money Moon By Jeffery Farnol The double romance grows more enthralling and a conspiracy is hatched in the next instalment. And "National Topliners," by JAMES HAY, JR., contains an unusually good collection of anecdotes.

Any important item of news you overlooked in your faily newspaper will reappear in the review of the week which is a regular feature of the Sunday Tribune. Meiled anywhere in the United States for $2.50 a year.